

Hypersensitivity reaction (mild and moderate pruritus, discomfort and tingling of tongue) was observed (1.2%)

Very common (frequency $\geq 1/10$):	Injection site reactions*
Common ($\geq 1/100$ to $< 1/10$):	Hypersensitivity, dizziness, rash maculopapular, myalgia, alanine aminotransferase increased, aspartate aminotransferase increased.

*Injection site reactions include: pain, erythema, bruising, discomfort, haematoma, haemorrhage, pruritus, swelling, induration, paraesthesia, reaction, warmth, oedema and rash.

 Hypersensitivity includes: pruritus, discomfort and tingling of tongue.