Yev Kravt

Curator, Member of the committee

Yev Kravt (she/her) (/ˈiːv/ Ee-j-ev) is an independent Crimean-Dutch curator living between Amsterdam, the Netherlands, and Larnaca, Cyprus. With a background in communication, philosophy and art history, her work encompasses a range of cultural, creative, and social initiatives. Her main motives are to stimulate experimentation, creativity, social change, and inclusiveness, as well as to imagine new ways of living together. Over the past 10 years, Kravt has organised numerous exhibitions at museums, galleries and non-profit spaces, including Foam Photography Museum Amsterdam; Droog Gallery; Ron Mandos Gallery; SEXYLAND World; Het Nieuwe Instituut; and the Biennale of São Tomé and Príncipe.

Lars Kærulf Møller

Member of the committee

Lars Kærulf Møller is an art historian and former museum director of the Danish Bornholm Art Museum. He was employed at the museum for over 30 years, where he, among other things, was responsible for the construction and expansion of the museum building at the Sanctuary, before he chose to retire in October 2020. He has previously been chairman of the Association of Danish Museums and of the Art Professional Council under the Danish Cultural Heritage Agency. Recently he became a Knight of the Order of Dannebrog. He continues to have a number of international engagements, e.g. as a board member in Greenland's National Gallery as well as in foundations in Italy and North Macedonia and now being part of the jury committee at Larnaca Biennale.
